FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

JOHN ROSSO TAPPED TO LEAD CITADEL INTERACTIVE

Newly Created Division to Leverage Radio and Interactive Platforms

Las Vegas, NV – August 28, 2007 – Citadel Broadcasting Corporation (NYSE: CDL) announced today the appointment of John Rosso to Senior Vice President in charge of all Citadel Interactive platforms including those of ABC Radio Networks. In his new role, John will focus on expanding Citadel's digital initiatives including Citadel's current National platform of around 300 local and National websites and over 200 streaming stations.

"This is a great opportunity for John," said Farid Suleman, Chief Executive Officer, Citadel Broadcasting. "His knowledge of the radio business will be invaluable in exploiting the synergies between traditional media and new media. John most recently was responsible for re-launching ABC Radio Networks websites and consolidating them into a national advertising platform with industry standard ad units, technology and accountability. John will extend his expertise across all of Citadel's interactive businesses, improving the experience for our users and giving our clients a growing menu of marketing options."

"Citadel already has strong synergies between our radio properties and digital media extensions," said John, "now we're taking that effort to the next level with investments in new interactive businesses and digital marketing opportunities."

Citadel Broadcasting Corporation is the third largest radio group in the United States, with a national footprint reaching more than 50 markets. Citadel is comprised of 170 FM stations and 63 AM stations in the nation's leading markets, in addition to the ABC Radio Network business, which is one of the three largest radio networks in the United States.
